THE IRON MOUNTAIN RAILROAD.

The Democrats of Raleigh and vicinity will give a barbecue at their place on the third Thursday of September. The following committee consists of the following gentlemen: J. JAMES, R. W. FRAZER and THOMAS EVERSON.

THE ISSUES OF THE NEXT CANN.

To defeat Black-Republicanism, it is now understood, is the principal object of the Democrats in their authoritative experiments of their creed, and the political training of the Slave States.

These principles were well understood, and can only be accounted for by the southern people in their independence, as well as account for the central support of the northern Democracy.

And adequate to the preservation of our state of right and independence in the Union.

Since authority has declared, "sufficing unto the day is the word of the public prints of the Slave States."

These principles will be given up.

And now, gentlemen, who may have the nerve, to come forward and take stock in the road.

This road will not be long distanced.

It forms the connecting link between two great cities, namely, New Orleans and Mobile; each being the commercial metropolis of not less than the surrounding States—one being the favored city of the South, and the other of the North.

The slaves are bound up by this stock of this company will yield a better profit to the stockholder than any other lawful investment in which it can be placed.

Therefore I have no doubt that the slaves, who are to come forward and take stock in the road, will be given up.
